

Health & Work Support (previously Single Health and Work Gateway) e-Bulletin – June 2018

It has been a busy few months for the Health & Work Support team with lots to update you on! Information about the launch, name and marketing can be found below!

Launch of Health & Work Support

Jamie Hepburn, Minister for Business, Fair Work and Skills launched Health & Work Support on the 26th June at events in both Dundee and Fife (Glenrothes). The Minister met with the local teams who have been involved in the detailed design of the new service. The service also went live on this date.

Health & Work Support is a 2 year trial of a new access channel and aligned core health and work services in Fife and Dundee. This will act as a single point of contact for health and work support for individuals, as well as employers, healthcare professionals and Jobcentre Plus.

We need your help! Marketing and Awareness of the new service

To access the service, either dial 0800 019 2211 (freephone) or access the website www.healthandworksupport.scot. Marketing materials are available, including posters, leaflets and promo cards. Please get in touch with your local lead if you require any materials, contact details below.

Eligibility Criteria: The service is to support people aged 16 and over who are struggling at work, off sick from work or recently unemployed (up to 6 months) due to a health condition/disability who live or work in Fife or Dundee. It is also for employers in Fife or Dundee.

Name, logo and branding

Following input from stakeholders a range of options of names and logos were explored via market research with representatives who may use the service. Health & Work Support was chosen with feedback that it is engaging and warm.
